

Equipment For Tough Terrain

This project took 20th century engineering and manufacturing technologies and updated them to the 21 century which resulted in a more cost-effective product for the client. The drawings were taken from 1928 paper blueprints and are now in CAD. The riveted fabrication was updated to a welded design while still retaining the look of riveted fabrication.